

NJ's do not call law needs to be left alone. We have been harassed for years by telemarketers at the most inconvenient times and now there is finally a law which prohibits these invasions of our private lives. Please leave the law intact--for the sake of the citizens.